2005-2006 ASCE/SAME Fifth Annual Executive Forum for Younger Members

On Thursday, February 23rd, 2006 (amended from previous announcement of 2/27/06), the Younger Member Forum (YMF) of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) Met Section will be hosting its Fifth Annual Executive Forum for Younger Members. The Executive Forum has been a very successful event because it provides a unique opportunity for younger engineers to draw insights from leaders in the civil engineering field in the New York Metropolitan Area. This year's topic is "Politics & Engineering." The event will be held at:

The Cornell Club – New York

Ivy Room, February 23, 2006 (Thursday), 6:00-9:30pm

(Amended from previous announcement of 2/27/06)

6 East 44th Street, New York, NY 10017

(Between Madison and Vanderbilt Avenues, adjacent to Grand Central Terminal)

The evening will start with a Limited Bar (free soda & beer & selected wine) and will be followed by a buffet dinner. After the dinner, a panel made up of prominent industry leaders will share their opinion on:

1. What role do politics play in the engineering profession?
2. How do engineering ethics relate to politics?
3. What is the trend of politics in respect to engineering?

Former Executive Forum speaker Ed Plotkin P.E. will moderate the discussion. The panel will field selected questions from the audience. Registration ends on Monday, February 20th, 2006. Corporate sponsorships are welcome. Please contact Bik Yin Ng, Treasurer, ASCE YMF, at BNG@HNTB.com for information.

Speakers:

Albert DiBernardo, P.E., Principal - Weidlinger Associates, Inc.

Francis J. Lombardi, P.E., Chief Engineer - Port Authority of NY & NJ

Nellie J. Torres, President - ProjectSpan Services

Robert Flowers, CEO of Public Services - HNTB

Founded in 1852 in New York City, ASCE represents more than 125,000 civil engineers worldwide (8,000 in the Metropolitan Area) and is America's oldest national engineering society. The YMF consists of ASCE members 35 years old and younger. The purpose of the YMF is to advance the technical, professional, and career development of its members through a variety of activities.

Founded in 1920 to engage military and federal government engineers with those in private life for the purpose of improving the engineering potential of the United States, The American Society of Military Engineers today has some 25,000 members from industry, the military, government, and academia.
